

NWC Questions

for Personal Study and Small Groups 8/14/11

"E Pluribus Unum"

1 Cor. 12.1-11

Focus: on teaching us how the Spirit manifests Himself in our midst by exalting Christ and strengthening the unity of the church through a diversity of gifts

Read 1 Corinthians 12.1-11.

What does this passage teach us about the ministry of the Holy Spirit? What can we learn about the way the Spirit manifests Himself in the church (spiritual gifts)?

Based on this passage, how could you tell if a church was in glad submission to the work of the Spirit? With these criteria, how would you evaluate our church?

How would submission to the Spirit show up in an individual Christian's life? How should that play out in the church?

In light of what this passage teaches about the Spirit manifesting Himself in the church, through gifts given to individual Christians, what do you need to rethink about how the Spirit wants to use you for the good of the body at NW?

NWC Questions

for Personal Study and Small Groups 8/14/11

"E Pluribus Unum"

1 Cor. 12.1-11

Focus: on teaching us how the Spirit manifests Himself in our midst by exalting Christ and strengthening the unity of the church through a diversity of gifts

Read 1 Corinthians 12.1-11.

What does this passage teach us about the ministry of the Holy Spirit? What can we learn about the way the Spirit manifests Himself in the church (spiritual gifts)?

Based on this passage, how could you tell if a church was in glad submission to the work of the Spirit? With these criteria, how would you evaluate our church?

How would submission to the Spirit show up in an individual Christian's life? How should that play out in the church?

In light of what this passage teaches about the Spirit manifesting Himself in the church, through gifts given to individual Christians, what do you need to rethink about how the Spirit wants to use you for the good of the body at NW?