

NWC Questions

for Personal Study and Small Groups 11/6/11

O Ye of Little Faith

Mk. 6.1-6; Matt. 16.5-12

Focus: to call us to repent of our lack of faith in Jesus as the Christ who cares for us and has taken care of us that we might pray expectantly and not worry about our needs

Read Mark 6.1-6. What would say was the "box" that the Nazarenes had Jesus in? What does this tell you about what Jesus was and was not like growing up?

What boxes do we try to put God in that limit him to our preconceived ideas about Him? How can we break free of those limitations?

Read Matt. 16.5-12. Why do you think the disciples missed Jesus' point in the first place? and how did His teaching in vv. 8-12 help them "get it"?

How can these same concerns/issues distract us from what Jesus is trying to teach us? How do we get free from such concerns?

What does it mean for you to be mindful of who it is that is "in the boat" with you? What can you do to remember his faithful provision for you?

Do you think Jesus could rightly say to you, "O you of little faith"? What causes you to limit God by your lack of faith?

NWC Questions

for Personal Study and Small Groups 11/6/11

O Ye of Little Faith

Mk. 6.1-6; Matt. 16.5-12

Focus: to call us to repent of our lack of faith in Jesus as the Christ who cares for us and has taken care of us that we might pray expectantly and not worry about our needs

Read Mark 6.1-6. What would say was the "box" that the Nazarenes had Jesus in? What does this tell you about what Jesus was and was not like growing up?

What boxes do we try to put God in that limit him to our preconceived ideas about Him? How can we break free of those limitations?

Read Matt. 16.5-12. Why do you think the disciples missed Jesus' point in the first place? and how did His teaching in vv. 8-12 help them "get it"?

How can these same concerns/issues distract us from what Jesus is trying to teach us? How do we get free from such concerns?

What does it mean for you to be mindful of who it is that is "in the boat" with you? What can you do to remember his faithful provision for you?

Do you think Jesus could rightly say to you, "O you of little faith"? What causes you to limit God by your lack of faith?