Remember to Dance with the One that Brung 'ya

Deut. 8

Study/Serve Questions:

- Where did you sign up for Serve? or Study?
- If you didn't sign, why not? What is preventing you? How can we pray?

Focus: calling the church to remember God's loving care for them, in hard times and good, so that they will not fall into idolatry and disobedience.

Read the entire chapter aloud.

Have you ever heard the saying "dance with the one that brung 'ya"? What would you say is the point of that saying? and how does it relate to Deut. 8?

Make a list of all that Moses says we must be careful to remember.

Why is remembering so important to Israel at this point in their history? How does our situation today compare to their circumstances?

What can we learn about how God is at work in hard times from this passage?

What can we learn from this passage about how to guard our hearts when we are prospering and successful?

According to this text, why is prosperity such a snare for us?

How are you at remembering God's mercies in hard times and good? what should you take away from this passage to apply in order to safeguard your heart from pride and idolatry?
