

NWC Questions

for Personal Study and Small Groups 4/8/12

Easter for Dummies

Luke 24; Hosea 1-3

Focus: on embracing the love of God that lay behind Christ's suffering and death and resurrection.

Read Luke 24.1-12. The role of women in all of this is fascinating. Why were they the first witnesses? Why were they not believed by the others? How does their role affect the likely veracity of the resurrection accounts?

Read 24.13-35. Why do you think Jesus sought out these 2 disciples? and why did he not just say, "ta-da! It's me!"? What was he trying to accomplish by walking them through the OT?

The story of Hosea brings out the shape of the love of God for his people. The cross is the greatest demonstration of God's love. How does Hosea point to the cross (see ch. 1-3)?

What OT stories and teachings reveal Jesus most powerfully to you? How would you explain how the story of the OT points to Christ?

How did the reality of the resurrection affect these 2 disciples? How ought it affect us as believers today?

Have your group spend some time sharing what they have been reflecting on this Easter season about Christ's death and resurrection. Spend time worshipping Christ together for this great redemptive act of love for us!

NWC Questions

for Personal Study and Small Groups 4/8/12

Easter for Dummies

Luke 24; Hosea 1-3

Focus: on embracing the love of God that lay behind Christ's suffering and death and resurrection.

Read Luke 24.1-12. The role of women in all of this is fascinating. Why were they the first witnesses? Why were they not believed by the others? How does their role affect the likely veracity of the resurrection accounts?

Read 24.13-35. Why do you think Jesus sought out these 2 disciples? and why did he not just say, "ta-da! It's me!"? What was he trying to accomplish by walking them through the OT?

The story of Hosea brings out the shape of the love of God for his people. The cross is the greatest demonstration of God's love. How does Hosea point to the cross (see ch. 1-3)?

What OT stories and teachings reveal Jesus most powerfully to you? How would you explain how the story of the OT points to Christ?

How did the reality of the resurrection affect these 2 disciples? How ought it affect us as believers today?

Have your group spend some time sharing what they have been reflecting on this Easter season about Christ's death and resurrection. Spend time worshipping Christ together for this great redemptive act of love for us!