Deuteronomy 21-22

Focus: To show how God reveals Himself and His will for His people through His laws.

Share any peculiar laws you have seen or encountered (especially if you have anyone who travels internationally).

How can these ancient Laws of Moses given to God's people in the promised land be of value to us today?

OPTION 1:

- Read the 2 chapters aloud and have people note what they learn about God and what kind of people he wants us to be. Share and discuss insights afterwards.
- Read 22.12 and Num. 15.37-41. What would God have you remember and do in response to the sermon and small group discussion on these 2 chapters?
- (You may want to follow up with the sexual purity discussion with men and women separate.)

OPTION 2:

- Read 21.1-9. What does this law teach you about God? and what purpose would this ritual serve amongst his people?
- Read 21.18-21. What puzzles or shocks you about this law? What principles can you learn from it? How should this affect you as parents?
- Read 22.1-4. What is the broader teaching about neighbors that underlies this teaching? how could we practically apply this?
- Read 22. 5, 21b, 22. contrast the view of sexual immorality that is to mark God's people with our day. How do you see the culture actively tempting you in this area?
- Read 22.12 and Num. 15.37-41. What would God have you remember and do in response to the sermon and small group discussion on these 2 chapters?
- (You may want to follow up with the sexual purity discussion with men and women separate.)
