Deuteronomy 23-24

Focus: To read the laws of Moses as a way to see, worship and honor God for his holiness, sovereignty and love.

When you read verses like 23.10-14, how do you figure out what to learn from them?

How is God's holiness conveyed in 23.1-14?

What verses in these chapters reveal to you God's concern that all of life should honor Him? Cite several that reveal the depth of God's interest in the lives of His people.

How should we decide what to learn from a law like 23.19-20? (you may want to consider Prov. 28.8 and Matt. 25.27) Why the ban on interest? (it is likely not excessive interest that is being banned, but interest altogether)

What would you say is the principle behind 24.17-22? How could this be applied today?

Any take-aways from the sermon or your reading of this passage?
